THE CALM BEFORE THE STORM

This seventh Sunday of Easter is somewhat like the proverbial "calm before the storm." The Lord Jesus has ascended into heaven and Pentecost has not yet occurred. Rather than immediately taking up Jesus' command to go out to all the nations, the disciples gather in the upper room "with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers" (Acts 1:14). There they all devote themselves to prayer. The Gospel recounts the great prayer for the disciples that Jesus offered to his Father in heaven. If the words of Jesus while he was on earth finally began to sink in for the disciples, then gathering to pray was certainly the right choice, for the second reading lets us all know that to follow Christ means to have a share in his sufferings.

OLP 31 ClubPraying for vocations every day of the year!

Members of the 31 Club agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations in the Church today. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

May 28: Ann F., Michael M., Betty S.

May 29: Linda M., Richard M.

May 30: Bethann D., Linda D., Julie M., James S.

May 31: Jim Z.

June 1: Maxine R., Mark S., Evelyn V., Pat B.

June 2: Kathy W., Deacon Dennis K.

June 3: Sister Peggy, Linda D., Wilma M., Virginia S.

If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 454-8974. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.

When at Mass offer the Mass for Vocations by praying the prayer below...Serra Prayer for Vocations

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk...

To My Spiritual Family of Our Lady of Peace,

A blessed Memorial Day Weekend and unofficial start of summer to you! As you know, Memorial Day is a United States federal holiday observed on the last Monday of May. Formerly known as Decoration Day, it commemorates U.S. men and women who died while in military service. First enacted to honor Union soldiers of the American Civil War (it is celebrated near the day of reunification after the Civil War), it was expanded after World War I. To ensure the sacrifices of America's fallen heroes are never forgotten, in December 2000, the U.S. Congress passed and the president signed into law "The National Moment of Remembrance Act." The National Moment of Remembrance encourages all Americans to pause wherever they are at 3:00PM local time on Memorial Day for a minute of silence to remember and honor those who have died in service to the nation.

So our country "commemorates" those who died, that is what Webster's defines as "to call to remembrance," while we as Catholic-Christians, do not just remember the dead, but we pray for them. We do so, following the example of Judas Maccabee in the Bible. Remember that in the Second Book of Maccabees, Judas takes up a collection for an expiatory sacrifice for those who had died in battle against the Greeks. It was found out that those slain had worshiped false gods and Judas makes atonement for them so that they might be freed of sin. Scripture says that "in doing this he acted in a very excellent and noble way." (2 Macc. 12: 38-46). This event in the Bible shows the efficaciousness of praying for the dead. It reaffirms our fundamental Catholic belief that in a mysterious way, our prayers can assist those who have died and are experiencing the purifying process of purgatory. In its section on the final purification, or purgatory, the Catechism (#s 1030-1032) explains it this way:

"All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. (Cf. Council of Florence (1439): DS 1304; Council of Trent (1563): DS 1820; (1547): 1580; see also Benedict XII, Benedictus Deus (1336): DS 1000). The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire (Cf. 1 Cor 3:15; 1 Pet 1:7). "As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come" (St. Gregory the Great, Dial. 4,39:PL 77,396; cf. Mt 12: 31) This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture (see above from Maccabees)... From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God (Cf. Council of Lyons II (1274): DS 856). The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead: "Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them" (St. John Chrysostom, Hom. in 1 Cor. 41,5:PG 61,361; cf. Job 1:5).

So to all those who ask "does the Catholic Church/do we still believe in Purgatory?" - hopefully the example of Judas Maccabee, Job, and 2,000 years of tradition of praying for the dead help you to see the answer to your question is YES! Join your OLP family on Monday at 9am to not just commemorate those who have given their lives in service to our country, but to more importantly pray the most effective prayer we have in our Catholic tradition for them.... come join in offering Mass for them. May God Bless our Military and may God Bless America!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Rich

Other notes from the pastor....

Congratulations to our two new permanent Deacons from Our Lady of Peace- Rev. Mr. Gerald Peterson and Rev. Mr. Joseph Yochim, and their wives and families! Deacon Jerry will serve and preach at the 9AM Mass this Sunday and Deacon Joe will do the same at the 11AM. As of the printing of this bulletin it was not know where they will be assigned but as soon as that is public I will be sure to announce that information. Please stop by the reception for both of them this weekend in the OLP Cafeteria after the 11am Mass (from 12:00pm to 2PM). Also keep them all in your prayers as they begin their diaconal ministry in our Diocesan Church.

*Anniversary Thank You We had a wonderful celebration of the 40th anniversary of the dedication of our church building last Monday. Thank you for everyone who attended and for everyone who helped organize the Mass and reception (especially our parish staff, our liturgical ministers and the Festival Choir)! We had approximately 300 people including Bishop Persico, sixteen priests, two deacons, four religious, the Knights of Columbus, the Boy Scouts, the Rosary Society (who also organized the reception after) and many others. Our fourth graders did a great job singing a special song at the end of Mass and Msgr. Charlie Kaza gave an outstanding homily (a copy is available on the parish website). There are extra copies of the program at the doors of the church as well as holy cards that were made for the occasion. Feel free to take one. Also, Fr. David made a power point with some photos of our history that is also available on the website. The main theme I took from the evening was the prayer and sacrifice that went into creating our parish and the need for that same prayer and sacrifice necessary for us to continue to build on the foundation we are so blessed to inherit here at Our Lady of Peace. Let's recommit ourselves to that prayer and sacrifice for the next forty years!
