"Indeed, the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart." Hebrews 4:12

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel Jesus asked Simon to start by "going a short distance." Later he asked Simon to "go into deeper water." The first step toward reconciliation is usually a "short distance" which gives us the courage to further "into deeper water." Reconciliation starts with the first short step!

Sunday's Readings:

First Reading - Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the Lord and responds, "Send me!" (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Psalm - In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord (Psalm 138).

Second Reading - Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it (1 Corinthians 15:1-11 [3-8, 11]).

Gospel - Jesus directs Simon to take his boat into deep water for a miraculous catch of fish. (Luke 5:1-11).

GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?

OLP 31 Club

Praying for vocations every day of the year!

Members of the 31 Club agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations in the Church today. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

- Feb. 10: Ann T., Veronica W., Peg Z., Pat C., Pat M., Mary S.
 - Feb. 11: Dave D., Paul M., Connie S.
 - Feb. 12: Rose B., Madeline H., Alice O., Chris P.
 - Feb. 13: Sylvia B., Phyllis D., Joanie M., Charlie R., Phil T., Sarah F., Glenn B., Donna R.
 - Feb. 14: Nancy A., Mary Fran P., Peggy R., Alice S.
 - Feb. 15: Jean H., Mary Alice W., Loretta B., Mandy K.
 - Feb. 16: Dee Dee B., Kathi K., Ed Z., Laura D., Kevin D.
- If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 454-8974. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.*

When at Mass offer the Mass for Vocations by praying the prayer below...

○ God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen. Serra Prayer for Vocations

Daily at 11:40AM

The Rosary of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary is prayed daily at 11:40AM, just before the 12:10 Mass. Mary invites all her children, if possible, to come and pray her Rosary. Many blessings will be yours! God bless you!

All are welcome!

From the Pastor's Desk...

To my Spiritual Family of Our Lady of Peace-

This Monday, February 11th is the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Since Mary under this title has a special heart for the sick, St. John Paul II designated this feast as also World Day of the Sick back in 1993. For all these special days designated by the Vatican, the Pope typically gives a message addressing the issue involved. I read an article through Vatican News that gives a great summary of Pope Francis' message for World Day of the Sick and I thought I would share it with you in the bulletin. Check it out below.

I also encourage you to pray for the sick in a special way on Monday, as well as all people who care for the sick or are dealing with the sick in their families. We will do that at both of our Masses (7am and 12:10pm) as well as at our daily rosary (in the church at 11:40am) and daily Divine Mercy Chaplet (in the chapel at 12:45pm).

This is also a good time to encourage all those who are sick in our community or who work or live closely with those who are sick, to take advantage of a great source of God's grace and support which is the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. We have 2 anointing Masses a year here at OLP (the next one is Saturday, May 18th at 5pm) and Fr. Kyle and I regularly visit the hospitals in Erie to offer this sacrament but we do not always know when people need the sacrament. So we need you to communicate with us when you need to be anointed so we can come to your home or arrange a time at church where we can administer the sacrament. Recall that it is not just the "Extreme Unction" or "Last Rites" of 75 years ago. Vatican II renewed an understanding and use of the sacrament which allows God to accompany us in our times of serious illness or surgery and allows us to receive the anointing multiple times throughout our lives.

Also, if you or your loved one experience a significant decline in health, it is better to receive the anointing of the sick sooner rather than later. I encourage you to not wait until death is imminent or you are dealing with a major crisis to be anointed (although I know sometimes these things cannot be predicted or anticipated) but always err on the side of receiving the anointing earlier than later in the process.

As always, if you have questions about this or are in a situation where you are not sure if anointing is appropriate, please do not hesitate to call me or Fr. Kyle to discuss your question or situation. May God bless all the sick in our parish and world... and our week ahead!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Rich

*Community Gatherings Coming Soon We will have our annual Mardi Gras Party on Tuesday, March 5th from 6-8pm. And our St. Joseph Table will take place on Tuesday, March 19th after a 5:30PM Mass for the feast of St. Joseph. Keep an eye out in the bulletin in the coming weeks for more information on both Mardi Gras and the St. Joseph Table. Mark your calendars now and be a part of strengthening our parish family's bond.

*OLP School Registration for 2019/20 Please consider Our Lady of Peace School as an option for your children or encourage your family to consider our school. There are great things happening at our school and we need your help to get the word out! I also want to make it clear that there is financial aid available to families for whom the cost of tuition is prohibitive. Please do not presume you cannot afford it. Contact our Director of Advancement, Kathy Grisier or our Principal, Lisa Panighetti to set up a tour and see what options are available.

*Business Manager Position Mary Beth Whitman has accepted a full-time position with the Erie Catholic School System leaving the position available. Resumes can be sent to Fr. Rich Toohey. See elsewhere in the bulletin for more details.

World Day of the Sick: Pope calls for a culture of generosity

In his message for the 27th World Day of the Sick, Pope Francis urges believers to promote a culture of generosity, noting that the joy of generous giving is a barometer of the health of a Christian. By Linda Bordoni

Pope Francis says that those who care for the sick and give of themselves with generosity and straightforward love – like St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta - are amongst the Church's most credible evangelizers.

In his message for the World Day of the Sick, celebrated on 11 February, the Pope focused on Jesus's words to the Apostles: "You received without payment; give without payment" (Mt 10:8). "Gift"

Just as life is a gift from God, he said, and cannot be reduced to a personal possession or private property, he said that "caring for the sick requires professionalism, tenderness, straightforward and simple gestures freely given, like a caress that makes others feel loved." "Amid today's culture of waste and indifference," he said, "gift" is the category best suited to challenging today's individualism and social fragmentation, while at the same time promoting new relationships and means of cooperation between peoples and cultures. "Gift" he explained is much more than simply giving presents: it involves the giving of oneself and entails the desire to build a relationship.

"Gift is a reflection of God's love, which culminates in the Incarnation of the Son and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit", he said.

The Pope also mentioned dialogue – the premise of gift – that, he said, creates possibilities for human growth and development capable of breaking through established ways of exercising power in society.

Everyone needs care

Pointing out that each of us "is poor, needy and destitute" needing the care of our parents to survive when we are born and remaining in some way dependent on the help of others at every stage of life, Pope Francis said a frank acknowledgement of our limitations "keeps us humble and spurs us to practice solidarity as an essential virtue in life."

Urging believers to act responsibly to promote the good, he noted that "Only if we see ourselves, not as a world apart, but in a fraternal relationship with others, can we develop a social practice of solidarity aimed at the common good." At the same time, he said, no one should be afraid to regard themselves as needy or reliant on others, because individually and by our own efforts we cannot overcome our limitations.

Do not fear acknowledging those limitations, he explained: "for God himself, in Jesus, has humbly stooped down to us and continues to do so; in our poverty, he comes to our aid and grants us gifts beyond our imagining."

St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Established in 1993 by Pope Saint John Paul II on the Feast Day of Our Lady of Lourdes, a different city is chosen each year to host the World Day of the Sick. This year the choice has fallen on Calcutta in India and Pope Francis highlighted the figure of Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta as a model of charity who made God's love for the poor and sick visible.

"In all aspects of her life," he said, "she was a generous dispenser of divine mercy, making herself available for everyone through her welcome and defense of human life, of those unborn and those abandoned and discarded... She bowed down before those who were spent, left to die on the side of the road, seeing in them their God-given dignity."

The Pope upheld her further saying that "she made her voice heard before the powers of this world, so that they might recognize their guilt for the crime – the crimes! – of poverty they created."

Describing her mission to the urban and existential peripheries as an eloquent witness to God's closeness to the poorest of the poor, the Pope said "Saint Mother Teresa helps us understand that our only criterion of action must be selfless love for every human being, without distinction of language, culture, ethnicity or religion."

Volunteers

Pope Francis's message also praised the generosity of so many volunteers who, he said, are so important in health care and who eloquently embody the spirituality of the Good Samaritan. He thanked the many associations run by volunteers that are committed to particular fields of health care including those who promote the rights of the sick, raise awareness and encourage prevention.

Noting that countless persons who are ill, alone, elderly or frail in mind or body benefit from these services, he urged them to continue to be a sign of the Church's presence in a secularized world: "Volunteer work passes on values, behaviors and ways of living born of a deep desire to be generous. It is also a means of making health care more humane."

Catholic healthcare institutions

The Pope also thanked Catholic healthcare institutions for their service, saying they are called "to give an example of self-giving, generosity and solidarity and he warned them against the trap of "simply running a business."

Health, he said, "is relational, dependent on interaction with others, and requiring trust, friendship and solidarity. It is a treasure that can be enjoyed fully only when it is shared. The joy of generous giving is a barometer of the health of a Christian." Finally Pope Francis urged everyone "at every level, to promote the culture of generosity and of gift, which is indispensable for overcoming the culture of profit and waste."

A Reflection on the Life of St. Teresa of Calcutta with Margaret Marszal, HM February 22-23, 2019 Villa Maria Education and Spirituality Center 2067 Evergreen Rd., Villa Maria, PA 16155

St. Teresa's life has been an inspiration to the world community. She teaches us how to be loving in both difficult and ordinary situations. Canonized in 2016, her call to us to be compassionate to others still resonates with us.

This weekend retreat will explore both her life and her teachings and will offer time for reflection and prayer.

Margaret J. Marszal, HM, a Sister of the Humility of Mary, has a background in retreat work, parish ministry, and education. Sr. Margaret is an experienced retreat presenter and spiritual director and has presented in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Indiana, and Florida. Her focus is on spirituality that integrates mind, body, and spirit. She is currently living in the Cleveland area.

OLP Casserole Club

Sister Catherine McAuley, founder of the Sisters of Mercy, said, "You should try to resemble Jesus Christ in some one thing at least, so that any person who sees you may be reminded of His holy life on earth."

Participants in Our Lady of Peace Casserole Club have been "reminders of His holy life on earth" for close to nine years by giving casseroles benefiting Maria House Project. In this time you have given over two thousand casseroles or other food items. The residents, volunteers, staff and board cannot thank you enough for your caring and giving but assure you they are reminded of God's holy life on earth through you.

The February casseroles can be delivered to the OLP Church Social Room (downstairs) on Saturday, February 16th, from 3:30 to 4:30PM. If you need a casserole to be picked up, or if the date and time for collection is not convenient, or if you have any questions about Maria House Project, contact Skip or Dottie Glover at 814-440-3496, scottiedip@yahoo.com. Casseroles should be pre-cooked, frozen in a disposable container, with re-heating directions attached. Names or addresses should NOT be included.

Live JOY fully!

Please take a look around and see if you have any of these old magazine issues laying around and wish to pass them on:

Outdoor Living Birds and Blooms Country Gardens
The English Garden Garden Gate any golf magazines
Field and Stream Guidepost or any nature magazines

Any of these magazines, any date, would be most welcome. They will be used for the Homebound who may like looking at them.

Please mark them for Deacon John Mang and bring them to the church office.

Thank you, in advance, for your thoughtfulness.
