

Our Lady of Peace

SAINT TERESA OF JESUS (1515-1582) October 15

Let nothing disturb you; let nothing frighten you. Gifted with a passionate spirit, young Teresa dreamed of converting Muslims and becoming a martyr. All things are passing; God never changes. But her mother's death when Teresa was fourteen inspired lifelong devotion to Our Lady, and Teresa entered the Carmelites, Mary's order, despite her father's objections and her own fragile health. Patience gains everything. Initially, she enjoyed her lax convent's sociability and "busyness," but mystical prayer and John of the Cross's collaboration inspired her to reform the Carmelites. Whoever has God, lacks nothing. When her ideals encountered resistance and brought suffering, she maintained her peace—and humor. Discovered devouring leftovers, she told her mildly scandalized nuns, "When I fast, I fast! When I eat, I eat!" To nuns demanding less work and more prayer in the convent schedule, she retorted: "What we really need around here are fewer starry eyes and more strong arms!" God alone is enough! The italicized sentences here are her "Breviary Bookmark," the simple, profound prayer of Teresa, the first woman Doctor of the Church.

Sunday's Readings:

First Reading - On this mountain the LORD will make for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines (Isaiah 25:6-10a).

Psalm - I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life (Psalm 23).

Second Reading - God will supply whatever you need (Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20).

Gospel - I have prepared my banquet, and everything is ready. Come to the feast! (Matthew 22:1-14 [1-10]).

Family Discussion of the Week: Living Our Faith

Jesus said, "Many are invited, but few are chosen." (Matthew 22:14)

Adults: How do you translate your faith into the work of the Reign of God?

Kids: What three things can you do this week to show that you are a follower of Jesus?

GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS

What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast—a heavenly feast—a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord's own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God's saving grace.

Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king's wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don't want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us.

OLP 31 Club

Praying for vocations every day of the year!

Members agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

Oct. 11: Dave D., Paul M., Connie S.

Oct. 12: Rose B., Madeline H., Chris P.

Oct. 13: Sylvia B., Phyllis D., Joanie M., Charlie R., Sarah F., Glenn B., Donna R.

Oct. 14: Nancy A., Mary Fran P., Peggy R., Alice S.

Oct. 15: Jean H., Mary Alice W., Loretta B., Mandy K.

Oct. 16: Dee Dee B., Kathi K., Laura D., Kevin D.

Oct. 17: Len & Cathy K, Helen W, Barbra W., Nancy D.

If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 397-6443. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.

When at Mass offer the Mass for

Vocations by praying the prayer below:

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen.

Serra Prayer for Vocations

From the Pastor's Desk...

To my Spiritual Family of Our Lady of Peace-

As we continue in this Respect Life Month, I wanted to share with you a reflection on "Living the Gospel of Life" from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

"Twenty-five years ago, Pope St. John Paul II wrote that the Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world (Evangelium vitae I). In taking on human flesh, dwelling among us, and sacrificing his very life for our redemption, Christ reveals the profound dignity of every human person. This God-given dignity does not change with our stage of life, abilities, level of independence, or any other varying circumstance.

Rather, it is rooted in the permanent fact that each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, created to share in the very life of God himself. The human person is a "manifestation of God in the world, a sign of his presence, a trace of his glory" (EV 34). And we must reflect this truth in how we act and how we treat one another.

The truth of the Gospel of life is at the foundation of who we are as followers of Christ. In his earthly life, Jesus provided the perfect model for how we are to love our neighbor and live out the Gospel call: "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Mt. 25:40).

Jesus calls each of us to "care for the other as a person for whom God has made us responsible" (EV 87). The Gospel of life is intrinsic to the whole Christian life and foundational to the decisions we make on a daily basis. For, "the Gospel of God's love for man, the Gospel of the dignity of the person and the Gospel of life are a single and indivisible Gospel" (EV 2, emphasis added).

In his encyclical on the Gospel of life, Pope St. John Paul II recognizes the full range of threats against human life, from poverty and malnutrition to murder and war. He places particular emphasis, however, on threats to life at its beginning and end—precisely when it is most in need of protection. In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the "least of these" in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern.

As the Church celebrates the 25th anniversary of Pope St. John Paul II's prophetic encyclical, let us reflect on how we personally live out the Gospel: Do I talk about and act towards others as I would talk about and treat Jesus himself? Do I inform myself of the Church's teachings and engage in the civic arena as first a follower of Christ? Do I support and advocate for laws and policies that protect and defend human life? Do I help pregnant and parenting mothers in need? Am I ready to support a loved one nearing death?

Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life."

Other notes from the pastor...

*Last week we hosted a Prayer Vigil for Johnny Heubel, the McDowell student and football player who had a major brain injury at the Prep-McDowell game several weeks ago. Johnny's father, John, is a parishioner at OLP and his step-sister is a student at OLP School. Please keep Johnny and his family in your prayers as we all seek healing, hope, peace and courage for them.

*Retreat this Week I will be away on my personal retreat this week at Hope House in Union City. I thank Fr. Mark for covering for me and handling all funerals and emergencies, as well as Fr. Shane, Fr. Phil Oriole and Fr. Mike Polinek who are helping cover Masses. Please keep me in your prayers and always be assured of my prayers for you, my spiritual family.

Blessing of the Pavilion There will be a blessing of the new OLP Picnic Pavilion behind the school THIS Sunday, October 11th at 12 Noon. The Knights of Columbus organized the building effort and contributed a majority of the funding for it's completion so it is appropriate to bless it over this Columbus Day Weekend. I again thank the Knights for their effort on this as well as all the other parish and school groups who donated: the Parish Rosary Society, The Ushers, Families Together Ministry, FSA, the school Athletic Board, and Boy Scout Troop 59. Well done to all!

*Special Masses This Week Monday, October 12th- Mass "In Time of Pandemic"; Tuesday, October 13th- Mass for "Refugees and Exiles"; Wednesday, October 14th- St. Callistus, Pope and Martyr; Thursday, October 15th- St. Theresa of Avila, Virgin and Doctor of the Church; Friday, October 16th- St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, Virgin (promoted devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus); Saturday, October 17th- St. Ignatius of Antioch, Bishop and Martyr.

*Faithful to the Finish 5K Time is "running" out to participate in the "Faithful to the Finish 5K Run/Walk." This is an important fundraiser for our school tuition assistance program; and I am very glad we are still able to make it happen. I hope you will support this event. The virtual edition allows for more flexibility, so my hope is we will have even MORE participants. Check out the details on page 7 and consider being “faithful to the finish” this year! We would like to Thank Our Race Sponsors: Klein Plating Works, Inc., Jim Lyons at Edward Jones, Panighetti Law, Industrial Sales & Mfg., Allburn Florist, Electronic Communication Services, Burton-Quinn-Scott Funeral Homes, Chuck & Judy Buckeye, and Janitors Supply Co., Inc. We are so appreciative of their generosity.

*OLP Parish Anniversary: “65 Rosaries of Acts of Kindness and Formation for 65 Years” Have you completed any “Acts of Kindness and Formation” towards the 65th Anniversary Rosary Challenge? Our parish goal is over 3,900 total acts of kindness and formation! There is no better way to celebrate our parish anniversary than to commit to growing as Christian disciples through acts of prayer, education and community building, and through acts of service to each other and our community as Christ calls us. Completed forms may be dropped off at the church office, in the basket at Sunday Mass or emailed to olp2020aokf@gmail.com.

*Adjustments to Protocols for Mass and Holy Communion

The Diocese of Erie modified the protocols for liturgy last month. Here is summary of what we will be implementing here at OLP the weekend of October 16/17:

ONE- Although we have been permitted to open up to every other pew, we will continue at every third pew until we fill the church at that level and seating becomes an issue. The allowable church capacity remains at 1/3 overall.

TWO- We have been permitted to begin homebound communion ministry. Fr. Mark will be contacting our ministers and homebound to find out who is comfortable visiting the homebound and if the homebound are comfortable receiving visits. If you or your loved one have not received Holy Communion at home in the past but are now interested, please contact Fr. Mark at 833-7701 x205.

THREE- We will begin to have Lectors and Cantors serve at Mass. We will not have choirs, altar servers, sacristans and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion (minimizing exposure and contact points) at this time.

FOUR- We will gradually introduce more music to the Mass with an emphasis on the regular “Mass parts” and not the congregational hymns.

FIVE- all other protocols remain in place (use of masks, social distancing, reception of communion, etc.).

This is a step towards normalcy. Your patience, support and participation in whatever way you feel comfortable continue to be appreciated and encouraged. If you have any questions or concerns, do not hesitate to contact me, Fr. Mark or Brian Kuzmin (Director of Liturgy).

“How the Church Has Changed the World” Series On October 10th I finished up the video series on “How the Church Has Changed the World” based on a series of essays written by Anthony Ensolen published in Magnificat Magazine. I learned a lot about the Catholic Church’s influence on history and particularly science and mathematics. Humanity is greatly indebted to the church! The full series is available on our parish website and I encourage you to check them out over the next few months if you have not already.

Book of Remembrance

Our parish Book of Remembrance is available in the vestibule throughout October. You may write the names of beloved family and friends who have gone home to be with our Lord, especially those who have died since last November 1. The Book of Remembrance will be placed near the altar on the Feast of All Souls, November 2, and we will continue to pray for these loved ones throughout November.

CYO Boys Basketball

CYO Boys Basketball will hold open gym practice on Sunday, October 18th and October 25th at 7:00PM in the Daily Center Gym. Open to any high school age young men from our parish in grades nine through twelve. For more information or to register please contact Coach Darrell Meyers at 814-450-3697 or email darrell.meyers @olp.org.

OLP Casserole Club

We Are Back!

COVID-19 certainly changed everyone's life. It still remains in our minds and in our prayers every day. In some way we will never be the same. As you know Maria House Project has not been asking for casseroles from Our Lady of Peace for months. We plan to make it up again this month.

Casseroles can be delivered to the Our Lady of Peace Church meeting room (basement) on Saturday, October 17th, between 3:30 and 4:30pm. If you would prefer another way, you can deliver it to our house by calling Skip or Dottie Glover at 814-440-3496 or email us at scottiedippy@gmail.com. If you bring the casserole to OLP all covid procedures must be followed: face mask covering nose and mouth, and six foot distancing. The area will be sanitized before and after the event. We recognize and are grateful to Our Lady of Peace for all its efforts to keep communication open to everyone and continue programs like The Casserole Club.

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel speaks about "unworthy wedding guests." What makes a "worthy" guest? Presence and presents are not enough. The greatest gift we can give is support to the couple as they voyage through life together because marriage naturally contains within it the fields of disappointment. Think of the weddings you have attended. Have you been a "worthy guest?"

We are looking for Eucharistic Ministers who are comfortable bringing Holy Communion to the homebound of our parish.

Interested ministers should be:

- In good health, free of all illnesses
- Age 18 or older and drive
- Confirmed
- Be comfortable to bring the Eucharist to an assigned person each weekend after the Mass you attend
- Able to follow CDC and Diocesan guidelines

At this time we request that ministers bringing Holy Communion to the homebound do not stay and visit for the health and safety of our parishioners. If you feel drawn to this simple ministry, please contact: Father Mark Hoffman by email, fr.hoffman@olp.org, or call my office, 833-7701 X 205.

This ministry would be great as an act of kindness
as part of our Rosary Challenge
