

Our Lady of Peace

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot receive you at this moment sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Family Discussion of the Week: Repent and Believe

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news. (Mark 1:14-15)

Adults: What part of your life is Jesus calling you to change right now?

Kids: In what way do you think you can be a better follower of Jesus?

A NEW DAY DAWNS

Today we hear how Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through the streets of Nineveh, scaring the citizens out of their wits. And it works! God has a change of heart, seeing "by their actions" how the people turn from evil (Jonah 3:10). A new day dawns.

Next we hear Paul telling the Corinthians, "The world in its present form is passing away" (1 Corinthians 7:31). He calls for a change of heart. Stopping short of telling them to stop carrying out their everyday activities, he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live "as though" they aren't doing the things they are doing. A new day has dawned.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, "The kingdom of God is at hand!" (Mark 1:14). Simon and Andrew abandon their nets—and even their father—and follow him. A new day had dawned.

Everyone has to change when a new day dawns: the Ninevites, the Corinthians, the apostles, even Jesus! Didn't a new day dawn today for us as well?

OLP 31 Club

Praying for vocations every day of the year!

Members agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

Jan. 24: Mary Ann A., Magherita H., Audrey & Robert H.

Jan. 25: Christine O.

Jan. 26: Cynthia B., Dave W., Joe S., Deb T., Corky Y.

Jan. 27: Ann R.

Jan. 28: Ann F., Michael M.

Jan. 29: Linda M., Janet A.

Jan. 30: Bethann D., Linda D., Julie M., James S.

Jan. 31: Jim Z.

If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 397-6443. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.

When at Mass offer the Mass forVocations by praying the prayer below:

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen.

Serra Prayer for Vocations

From the Pastor's Desk...

We welcome Bishop Lawrence Persico to Our Lady of Peace this weekend as he celebrates a Mass for Life sponsored by the Office of Social Justice and Life of the Diocese of Erie (I am on Sunday, January 24th). I would like to share with you a great article recently written by our priest in residence at OLP and professor of theology at Gannon University, Fr. Shane Mathew. It speaks to the mission we have to respect and love all life and is titled "PROMOTING LIFE IN EXISTENCE AND IN ABUNDANCE."

"I am convinced that the pro-life position of the church must be developed in terms of a comprehensive and consistent ethic of life." Joseph Cardinal Bernadin spoke these words in December 1983, weeks after becoming the chairperson of the American bishops' committee for pro-life activities. With prophetic vision, Bernadin's words call us to a deeper appreciation of the authentic good news Jesus Christ offered to the world. He highlights that to be pro-life with any integrity means to affirm life wherever it is found, to defend life whenever it is wounded and to advocate for life whenever it is threatened or made voiceless.

Nearly 40 years later, we, as Catholics in America, struggle to understand the Gospel with one mind, to live the life of faith with one heart and to proclaim the good news of the resurrection with one voice. We struggle within ourselves and within our church with the consequences of sin, which wounds our communion with God, with each other and with creation itself. Ours is the reality described by the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council: "Such division openly contradicts the will of Christ, scandalizes the world, and damages the holy cause of preaching the Gospel to every creature." (Unitatis Redintegratio I)

How might Christ be calling us to let him heal the wounds of division in our hearts and in our church? I propose these words of Jesus to guide us: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly." (Jn. 10:10) Christ's incarnational purpose becomes our mission as Christians and as a church: to promote life both in existence and in abundance. Jesus invites us to embrace life in its fullness, to see a world in which all people enjoy the absolute right to live, with the conditions necessary for all people to live abundantly. Because Christ's purpose is our mission, Christ also calls us to build within ourselves and our world the vision he proposes. Our lives testify to our faith in the risen Christ, and our testimony to life is only as faithful and credible as it is comprehensive and consistent.

As we approach the anniversary of the Roe v. Wade decision, we grieve that a child conceived in America does not enjoy any automatic right to exist. As the horrific case of Lisa Montgomery just reminded us, we grieve that our government retains the use of capital punishment as a misguided substitution of satisfaction for justice. And offering our prayerful companionship to all the suffering, we grieve for all who might turn to death as a solution. When we advocate for life in all these cases, we strive after the best of what Christ calls us to be. When we accompany all those facing these questions in prayerful receptivity and Christian charity, we become more clearly what the grace of God has made us to be: individually members of Christ's Body and together an instrument of salvation.

As the right to life remains endangered, many millions face circumstances that preclude their living abundantly humane lives. As our bishops reminded us, "When we accept violence in any form as commonplace, our sensitivities become dulled...Violence has many faces." (The Challenge for Peace 285) As Christians, we must recognize that anything whatsoever that diminishes the capacity for abundant living is a form of violence. Some of this violence is self-inflicted and can only be remedied by personal conversion. Yet some of this violence is structural and consists of what church teaching calls social sin. Economic systems that disconnect the work of production from the generation of wealth do violence to workers. Personal and structural bias, increasingly reinforced and automated by artificial intelligence, are violent toward the disenfranchised. Unfettered nationalism traps refugees in a limbo of violence between their sundered homelands and people unwilling to offer haven. Defense of myriad hegemonic structures wound all those excluded by such structures as "others." If we would be for life, in the example of Christ, we must banish from our own hearts and minds all forms of violence we might harbor and allow Christ to replace them with his own true peace.

How then to proceed? Christ points the way: "But these you should have done, without neglecting the others." (Mt. 23:23) The law of love does not allow us to set aside any violence against life as unworthy of remedy. Again, our testimony to life is only as faithful and credible as it is comprehensive and consistent. The prayer of the church gives the example. None of us alone can fulfill the command to pray without ceasing. But together? We each contribute to our shared obedience to God's command through our personal and communal prayer, flowing from and returning to the Eucharist. What we cannot do on our own, we can and do achieve together. So, I believe, it must be for our advocacy for life. Only by passionate advocacy for life and its abundance will our testimony be faithful to God and credible to the world."

May God bless and protect all life... and our week ahead!

Other notes from the pastor...

*Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25th every year) Ecumenism is the name we give to the movement and effort to seek greater unity among all Christians. Certainly part of that effort is to initiate ways we can pray, serve and stand for justice together with Christians from other denominations. We have seen this in action this past year as Bishop Persico united with other Christian leaders in Erie to pray for racial justice in our community and country. It also involves engaging in dialogue and study with other Christians in the effort to find ways to overcome that which still divides us. The Holy Spirit, that gave birth to the church, is the key to bringing greater Christian Unity so pray for the Holy Spirit to inspire us and our leaders to be instruments of this unity that God desires. Please continue to pray for this intention in a special way through Monday.

*Catholic Schools Week Mass Next Sunday, January 31st kicks off the annual celebration of Catholic Schools throughout the United States. We pray for Our Lady of Peace Catholic School, the Erie Catholic School System and all schools in the diocese in a special way at all Masses next weekend; the 9am Mass will include a special slideshow. All school families are invited to join us either in person or on YouTube. At Mass we will give thanks to God for the gift of Catholic education in our parish and diocese; thank the parish for its ongoing financial and moral support of the school's mission, and ask for the inspiration and guidance of the Holy Spirit to help continue our Catholic Schools.

*Special Masses This Week Monday, January 25th, Conversion of St. Paul; Tuesday, January 26th – Sts. Timothy and Titus, bishops (1st Century); Wednesday, January 27th - St. Angela Merici, virgin and religious founder (16th Century Italy, founder of the Ursulines committed to education); Thursday, January 28th - St. Thomas Aquinas, priest and doctor of the church (13th century Italy, Dominican, patron of Catholic Schools); Friday, January 29th - Mass In Time of Pandemic; Saturday, January 30th - Blessed Virgin Mary, Pillar of Faith.

*65th Anniversary Acts of Kindness and Formation Parishioners have logged 9,077 acts of kindness and formation for our 65th Anniversary Celebration between October 1st and January 1st. With that total we completed two rosaries and 25% of a third one. Well done and thank you to all who participated! We are compiling the final numbers, look for the final report next weekend.

*Men's Conference The Annual Diocesan Men's Conference, held Saturday, February 27th from 9am-12pm, will be different this year. Several parishes (including OLP) will host smaller groups of men who will participate virtually together and have an opportunity for Confession and Mass. Registration forms are available on the bulletin board.

*Night to Shine (an initiative of the Tim Tebow Foundation) OLP will again be the church sponsor for this prom night event for those with disabilities in our community of Erie. This year is a virtual event combined with a "Shrine Thru" experience that we will host right here at OLP on Friday, February 12th. If you would like to help financially support the event or volunteer to help, please call the parish office.

A Family Perspective

It must have been difficult for Zebedee to watch his sons walk away and follow Jesus as it seemed he had his own plans for his children. We often forget that our children were never ours to begin with. They are only on loan to us. We raise them to let them go.

FEAST OF FAITH The Penitential Rite

Standing together in the presence of the Lord, we acknowledge our weakness, our sins and faults and failings. But the penitential rite is really less about our sins than it is about God's mercy. It is not a time for individual confession, like a mini-sacrament of reconciliation. It is, rather, a preparatory rite, preparing us to praise the mercy of Christ as we acknowledge our own weakness. When Simon Peter witnesses the miraculous catch of fish—when he realizes who is in the boat with him—he falls at Jesus' feet with the words, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man" (Luke 5:8). We are like Peter. The more aware of the Lord's presence we become, the more awareness we also have of our sinfulness, our weakness.

The penitential rite of the Mass takes several forms, from the traditional Confiteor or "I confess" to a litany, spoken or sung by the deacon or cantor with responses by the entire assembly. The penitential rite always includes the words Kyrie, eleison; Christe, eleison—Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy. This ancient Greek prayer came to the Roman liturgy from the East, and still echoes in many of the litanies of the Eastern Rite Churches. These words turn our gaze from our own weakness to the gentleness, the kindness, the forgiving love of Christ.

All Day Adoration "Every Knee Shall Bow!" 10AM Friday, January 29 through Midnight Holy Rosary Chapel, Erie, PA

We come to bow our knees before our God and King.

We bring the needs of our country; our diocese; our family, friends and loved ones; our religious; end of COVID... and more to the Lord.

We worship Him and trust in His loving faithfulness that He hears our prayers.

There is a special urgency given the tumult of the past year just to come and pray. Each year, we feel the blessing of God during this event. Come for a visit or spend the 14 hours with our Lord.

Special thanks to Fr. Jonathan Schmolt, Fr. John Jacquel, Fr. Rich Toohey, Fr. Joe Petrone, Fr. Jerry Priscaro, and other religious for their participation, and to Holy Rosary Church.
