Sunday's Readings:

Entrance Antiphon - The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world / and that which contains all things / understands what is said, alleluia.

First Reading - They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm - Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading - There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13).

Gospel - As the Father has sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from the Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Family Discussion of the Week: Pentecost Sunday

And they were all filled with the holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:4)

Adults: When have you felt filled with the Spirit and emboldened to act with courage?

Kids: When have you felt strength from outside of yourself to do what was right?

LORD, SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

In today's responsorial psalm the Church sings out: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." All three readings describe how God has answered that prayer already.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that caused cowering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul's words reach out into the future to us: "we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

It is our task to truly pray today's psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in its various ministries.

OLP 31 Club

Praying for vocations every day of the year!

Members agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

May 23: Heidi A.

May 24: Mary Ann A., Magherita H., Audrey & Robert H.

May 25: Christine O.

May 26: Cynthia B., Dave W., Joe S., Deb T., Corky Y.

May 27: Ann R.

May 28: Ann F., Michael M.

May 29: Linda M., Janet A.

May 30: Bethann D., Linda D., Julie M., James S.

If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 397-6443. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.

When at Mass offer the Mass for Vocations by praying the prayer below:

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen.

Serra Prayer for Vocations

From the Pastor's Desk...

Happy Birthday Church of God! Pentecost Sunday has always been considered the start of the Christian Church and so we will celebrate our liturgies with full solemnity and joy this weekend. One way our church will be experiencing new life around our birthday is with new directives from the Bishop in regard to worship in Erie. The Bishop released these directives in response to the most recent updates from the CDC and Pennsylvania government. Below is the press release that summarizes the highlights of the directives with my comments in parenthesis about our policies here at OLP:

"After consultation with the Priest Council, the Most Rev. Lawrence T. Persico, bishop of Erie, has issued a decree revising the protocols concerning the celebration of public Masses, effective immediately (at OLP we will implement these new directives the weekend of June 5/6. This includes the opening of the southwest door in the church, the return of altar servers, the opening procession with the Book of the Gospels, and the invitation to offer each other a sign of peace-but no handshakes.) While the bishops of Pennsylvania have had and continue to have the freedom to set the protocols for Catholic worship, they have consistently taken the mitigation recommended by the CDC, the Pa. Department of Health and the Governor's Office into consideration when making decisions.

Many pastors are reporting a significant increase in the numbers of people who are returning to Mass in person now that they have been vaccinated. It is essential for the public to be aware that even as restrictions are being eased, the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday and holy day Masses remains in place. For this reason, parishes are encouraged to continue livestreaming Mass as an option wherever feasible.

The main parameters parishes in the Diocese of Erie are being asked to observe are listed here.

- Individuals are no longer required to wear masks when in church. Those who are not fully vaccinated are strongly encouraged to wear masks while in church, both for their protection and that of others. (At OLP I ask that you continue to wear a mask this week and next; until June 5/6 when we will implement our adjustments. On that weekend we will have designated sections for those wearing masks and those without masks.)
- The use of all pews in churches is now permitted. (At OLP we will continue only using every other pew since our numbers at Mass do not require otherwise and this maximizes everyone's comfort. Once numbers increase to the point that we cannot maintain every other pew, we will open up to use of every pew section by section.)
- The doors to the church are to be propped open before and after Mass when possible.
- Entrance and closing processions are now permitted.

- The use of servers, lectors, musicians and choirs is now permitted.
- A verbal exchange of the sign of peace is now permitted among the faithful.
- Common surfaces still need to be wiped down between Masses that are less than 24 hours apart.
- Priests may now greet parishioners before or after Mass, provided it is done outside and that they do not shake hands.

Among the protocols that have been in place and remain in effect:

- Although the Eucharist continues to be offered at Mass, the distribution of the Precious Blood still is not permitted.
- Holy water may not be placed in fonts.
- Nothing may remain in pews, including hymnals.
- Hand sanitizer is to be available at the church entrance for parishioners.
- Collection baskets are not to be used in the pews.
- The bishop continues to strongly recommend that Communion be received in the hand, but the right to receive on the tongue remains in place.
- Those approaching to receive the Eucharist are encouraged to sanitize their hands before getting in line.
- Parishioners who are not feeling well are to stay home.

In addition to these protocols for the celebration of Mass, the use of confessionals is once again permitted. The full decree can be found on the diocesan website at www.eriercd.org/bishop/decrees.html under the "Particular Law" listing. This release, with information pertinent to the public, can be found at www.eriercd.org/covidstatements.htm.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact me via email or phone. May God bless our Catholic Church on her birthday and our week ahead!

"True Reformers" Faith Formation Series Our faith formation series continues over the summer. St. Thomas More, St. Ignatius of Loyola, St. Philip Neri, St. Charles Borromeo, St. Theresa of Avila and St. Francis de Sales were all part of the ways that God helped bring new life and resurrection to the Catholic Church in response to the Protestant Reformation of the 1500s. FEAST OF FAITH

Liturgy: Work of the Spirit

The Spirit of God who hovered over the waters at the dawn of creation—the Holy Spirit who descended upon the disciples at Pentecost in ever-changing forms in the sound of a mighty wind or tongues of flame—hovers also over our celebration of the liturgy, giving it life, making it real. It is the Spirit of God who draws us, gathering us together, Sunday after Sunday. It is the Spirit of God who called loudly to the inspired writers of the scriptures and who continues to whisper to us, revealing ever-new facets of God's word, granting insight just when we need it. It is by the Spirit's power that, when Christ's words are uttered by the priest, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. And it is surely the Spirit who inspires us—that is, breathes in us—when, sent forth from the assembly, we seek ways to serve our brothers and sisters, to allow the gospel to come to life in the world. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.

A Family Perspective

Today, on Pentecost, we remember Christ has given us the Holy Spirit to assist us in raising our family and he expects us to use this personal gift. Let's set aside the distractions in our lives and let the Holy Spirit "guide us to the truth."

Booklet $4 – NEW: Catholic Social Teaching

Where is "Catholic social teaching" found, anyway?

Are all aspects of Catholic social teaching equal important, or can we rank them?

Does the Church tell me how I should vote, or what the best economic or political system is?

How does the Church say that that laity should try to promote and implement Catholic social teaching in the world?

When Jesus inaugurated his kingdom on earth, he taught us to bring heavenly principles to it. This explains how Catholic doctrine affects government, economics, the family, war and peace, basic human rights, and interpersonal justice. It lays out where this Catholic approach binds us to necessary principles and conclusions and where there is considerable freedom for disagreement.

The Ministry of Home Communion Visits to Resume

Good News! We are planning on resuming our home communion visits to parishioners who are ill or disabled. Those who are already on our call list have been contacted to ask if they wish to receive Holy Communion every weekend.

If you are a parishioner who is ill, disabled and not able to leave the home on a regular basis, please contact Father Mark Hoffman at 814-833-7701 Ext 205, so that we can coordinate this ministry for you.

Please note: this ministry is ONLY for parishioners who are ill and home bound. For those who do not yet feel comfortable worshiping in person, you are warmly invited to receive Communion at the OLP gym following the 9am Mass.
