Second Reading - May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 6:14-18).

Gospel - Jesus sends his disciples out in pairs to bring his peace and proclaim the kingdom of God (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 [1-9]).

Family Discussion of the Week: Accepting the Christian Message

Jesus said to the disciples, "Whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." (Luke 10:10-11)

Adults: Where do you see the message of Christian faith being rejected in the world today? What is your response to that?

Kids: What can you do when you are generous with others, and they do not want what you give them?

GOOD NEWS IS ON THE WAY

This week, in the midst of summer, the scriptures greet us with joy, peace, mercy, and more peace! Sounds a little like Advent, doesn't it? We often associate the prophet Isaiah with that preparatory season, and our first reading rings with such words as exult, comfort, and rejoice. The Israelites had reason to rejoice, for they had returned, come home, to a rebuilt Jerusalem from their exile in Babylon. In the Gospel, the seventy-two disciples who were sent out have their own "homecoming," returning to Jesus from spreading the Good News of the Kingdom and preparing people for the "advent" of Jesus into their cities and towns on his long road to Jerusalem. Like the exiles in Isaiah, the disciples return rejoicing. The Good News, the Kingdom of God, is coming, even in summer. As today's psalm reminds us, "Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!"

SANCTUARY LAMP - The lamp is burning this week in memory of Leona Pettinato - Family.CHAPEL LAMP - The lamp is burning this week in memory of Patricia French - Friends.A Family Perspective

Just like the seventy two disciples sent out by Jesus in today's gospel, families are expected to be MISSIONARIES. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respect to a culture caught up with violence and self-gratification.

OLP 31 ClubPraying for vocations every day of the year!

Members agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

July 3: Sister Peggy, Linda D., Virginia S.

July 4: Arlene B.

July 5: Joyce K., Chuck & Linda R.

July 6: Maxine B., Denise & Michael G., Susan F.

July 7: Margaret K.

July 8: Peggy C., Tim G., Pat H., Catilda M., Patricia P., Diane & Bill S., Jean V., Ann S.

July 9: Ellie A., Elaine S., Jane D., Bill C.

July 10: Ann T., Pat C., Pat M.

If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 397-6443. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.

When at Mass offer the Mass forVocations by praying the prayer below:

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen.

Serra Prayer for Vocations

From the Pastor's Desk...

Happy July Fourth Week! I praise and thank God this week in a special way for the recent Supreme Court decision in overturning Roe Vs. Wade so that abortion is no longer protected on a federal level in our country but left to the States to legislate. I also pray that any protests be peaceful and for no destructive or violent responses in our community and country.

It is interesting to me to see the evolution of the pro-abortion argument over the last 50 years. At first it was an argument that the life in the womb was not human. As science refuted that argument, the focus turned to the law and freedom. Now that the law has been overturned, the entire focus is on freedom (where the pro-choice label comes from). But that argument fails to understand that true freedom is the freedom to choose what is right and good and holy and NOT just the ability to choose whatever one wants. The pro-abortion argument says that the freedom of a mother is greater than the life of the child in the womb, and we as Catholics can never agree to this. Jesus told us that the greatest love that one can have is to give one's life for the life of a friend, it is not acceptable for us to say I choose to take your life for mine. So let us pray that our country can understand and embrace this understanding of freedom and how it applies to this issue of the unborn.

Taking the discussion of freedom even further, as Catholics, we celebrate freedom at every Mass. It is the greatest freedom that Jesus won for us on the Cross, that is freedom from sin and death (the ONLY things that can separate us from the love of God). So as we join our country in being grateful for our legal freedoms that it is founded on, let's make sure to be grateful for the spiritual freedoms that are even more important from the eternal perspective.

With all this in mind, this prayer of thanksgiving and prayer for peace and protection in response to the Dobbs Supreme Court decision, as well as an understanding of freedom and religious liberty, will all be a continued part of our daily Masses during this week. I encourage you to find ways to incorporate these intentions in your daily prayers. We will pray for our country in an intentional way at Mass on Monday, July 4th at 9am. Also, our daily parish rosary at 11:35am will include these intentions.

To see the US Bishops statement on the supreme court decision visit www.usccb.org/news/2022/usccb-statement-us-supreme-court-ruling-dobbs-v-jackson. Also Bishop Persico encourages us to increase our efforts to support woman who are making the decision to choose life in difficult circumstances so I encourage you to read his statement at www.eriercd.org/news/BISHOP-LAWRENCE-PERSICO-STATEMENT-ON-SUPREME-COURT-ABORTION-DECISION.html.

May God bless our country with a true understanding of freedom, and the unborn... and our week ahead!

Remember we will also draw the OLP Raffle Early Bird Prize.

*Feast of Our Lady of Peace There is no universal feast day for Our Lady of Peace on the Roman Catholic Liturgical Calendar. But next Saturday, July 9th is one of two dates celebrated by some diocese in the country for Mary under this title (the other being January 24th). The Liturgy Committee and Staff have decided that we will celebrate our parish feast day on that date annually since we have not had a patronal feast day at OLP. Mass in the morning at 8am will be the votive Mass for Mary, Queen of Peace, and we will have cake at the bonfire in the evening to recognize our patronal feast day. Hopefully we can build on this and make this feast more prominent in the years to come.

*Video Series on "75 Masterpieces that Every Christian Should Know" by Terry Glaspey This week's Masterpieces are AMAZING GRACE... hymn by John Newton, England (1779 AD), SONGS OF INNOCENCE AND EXPERIENCE... poems by William Blake, England (1789-1794 AD) and THE CREATION... Chris Wheeler starts his first priestly assignment in McKean County on July 6th as well. During Fr. Chris' two summers of seminary work at Our Lady of Peace, he has been a humble and gracious servant to our people. I thank Fr. Chris for his commitment to us and wish him well in his ministry to our diocesan church. Please note that Fr.
