The OLP Prayer Ministry

This is a ministry for those individuals who are unable to attend usual parish functions perhaps due to an impairment, lack of transportation or illness. This active ministry can be done from home, a nursing home, the hospital, etc. Those who participate are asked to voluntarily pray for a specific group, ministry or function as the meeting, ministry or function is occurring. Prayer is vital to our lives and keeps us connected as members of the Body of Christ.

For more info, contact: Deacon John Mang at deacon.john@olp.org or Tammie Mang, Faith Formation Office, at 814-838-9983.

Sunday's Readings:

Entrance Antiphon - Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; / O sing to the glory of his name. / O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

First Reading - God has raised the crucified Jesus, who now pours forth the Holy Spirit upon us (Acts 2:14, 22-33).

Psalms - Our God shows us the way to live (Psalm 16).

Second Reading - Our faith and hope are in God who raised Jesus from the dead (1 Peter 1:17-21).

Gospel - Through his words and in the breaking of the bread, the risen Christ made himself known to two disciples on their way to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35).

Family Discussion of the Week: Recognizing the Lord

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these? He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." (John 21:15)

Adults: In what way have you come to know Jesus better through the breaking of the bread at Eucharist?

Kids: When you join Jesus at the table of the Eucharist next Sunday, what would you like to thank him for?

EMMAUS AND THE MASS

Emmaus might as well be Brigadoon. We hear of it in this one story—and it's only in Luke—and then it disappears. The journey to Emmaus is one of the most beloved stories about Jesus, and yet the town is probably "mythical" in the truest sense. Like so much of life, this story is about the journey, not the destination. Running away from Jerusalem and their fears, probably going home in disillusionment, two of Jesus' disciples encounter a stranger on the road who, like a rabbi, is able to help them understand their experiences using his deep knowledge of scripture. Later, sharing a meal with him, they recognize the stranger as Jesus, and they return to Jerusalem to tell the others. How like our Mass—we hear the scriptures and an explanation of them, we share a meal, and then we go out to tell the good news.

A Family Perspective
 In today's gospel the disciples were returning home so "downcast" they did not recognize Jesus walking with them. In our homes we can be so overwhelmed with responsibilities we don't see God with us, either. Today's gospel tells us to pause and open our eyes to "see Christ" in each other.

PRAYERS FOR THE DECEASED - Please pray for Louis Kwiatkowski; for Audrey Moskot; and for Agnes Tillerson. May their families find hope and consolation through their faith in the resurrected Lord.

OLP 31 Club
Praying for vocations every day of the year!

Members agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

- Apr. 23: Heidi A.
- Apr. 24: Mary Ann A., Magherita H., Audrey & Robert H.
- Apr. 25: Christine O.
- Apr. 26: Cynthia B., Dave W., Joe S., Deb T., Corky Y.
- Apr. 27: Ann R.
- Apr. 28: Ann F., Michael M., Mary Margaret M.
- Apr. 29: Linda M., Janet A.
- Apr. 30: Bethann D., Linda D., Julie M., James S.

If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 397-6443. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.

When at Mass offer the Mass for Vocations by praying the prayer below:

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen.

Serra Prayer for Vocations

From the Pastor's Desk...

It is "Welcome Weekend" (April 22/23) at OLP! This weekend we will recognize new parishioners at Mass and the congregation will be encouraged to greet those around them before Mass. There will be a table with information on how to register at the parish. We are also hosting a luncheon for families who have registered at the parish since March of 2022.

These are steps we are taking as a parish to grow in the spirit of welcome and hospitality; but the best way to grow as a welcoming parish is for each one of us to take on the responsibility of hospitality and ensuring that all people feel as though they belong when they come to OLP. I ask you to join me in making a commitment to growing in the area of hospitality.

May God bless our 3rd Week of Easter ahead!

Other notes from the pastor...

**World Day of Prayer for Vocations and Holy Hour for Vocations Next Sunday, April 30th, is the 4th Sunday of Easter and traditionally called "Good Shepherd Sunday." It is also World Day of Prayer for Vocations. We will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from Noon until 7pm (reposing for the 4:30pm Mass). At 7pm we will have a holy hour for vocations. Please pray for the young people in our parish, diocese and universal church to be open to the call to priesthood, diaconate, religious life and lay leadership in the mission of the church. And consider being a part of the prayer efforts for this important intention in our church.

**Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) 2023 UPDATE Update: 439 pledges for $224,607. That means we have our parish goal! Well done, OLP! It will go toward replacing the worn plexiglass over the outside of the stain glass windows of the church with new tempered glass. If you have not yet handed in your CSA pledge, please send, drop off or bring it to Mass in the next few weekends and include it in the offertory. Thank you for your support.

**Lector Promotion Weekend is next Sunday, April 29/30. Consider joining this ministry of proclaiming God's Word at our liturgies.

**Youth Ministry Cash Bingo is taking place on Friday, May 5th at the JPTF Bingo Hall, 2319 W. 38th St. Doors open at 5pm with bingo starting at 5:45pm in conjunction with Kids Night Out. See the bulletin for how to get your tickets.

**Faithful to the Finish 5K Our Annual 5K will be in person this year on Saturday, May 13th at 8pm at Presque Isle. All money raised will go towards building our parish endowment which was started with the Catholic Foundation of Northwest PA. Come as a family & start off Mother's Day with a fun, family walk/run. Sign up online at runsign.com or use a form available in the bulletin.

**Our Annual Parish Appreciation Dinner is Saturday, May 20th at 6:15pm in the school cafeteria. Volunteers on any level for parish ministries are invited. Please call or email the office to register. 814-833-7701 x0 or olp@olp.org.

*OLP Trip to Sight and Sound Theatre in Lancaster, PA for Production of "Moses" will be June 13-15, 2023. Call the office if you are interested in joining us.

"How the message of The Divine Mercy is Eucharist?" (during this time of Eucharistic Revival in the United States)

"The Divine Mercy message is profoundly Eucharistic. This message unveils the inscrutable mystery of God's infinite love and mercy which He pours forth continuously on us through His only Son who offered Himself completely on our behalf. We receive this healing and redeeming gift of God's merciful love when we receive the Lord's Body which He gave up for us on the Cross, and His Blood which He shed for all for the forgiveness of sins.

The Eucharist, the living Body and Blood of the Lord, made present through the Eucharistic Sacrifice, was for St. Faustina her source of holiness, hope and strength. Just as blood carries oxygen and gives life to every cell in our body, the Eucharist is our spiritual food that nourishes and gives life to the soul.

During Eucharistic adoration the Lord gave St. Faustina a special grace to experience the events of the Upper Room on the night before He died. She recounts this experience thus: "During this hour of prayer, Jesus allowed me to enter the Cenacle, and I was a witness to what happened there. However, I was most deeply moved when, before the consecration, Jesus raised His eyes to heaven and entered into a mysterious conversation with His Father. It is only in eternity that we shall understand that moment. His eyes were like two flames; His face was radiant, white as snow; His whole personage full of majesty, His soul full of longing. At the moment of Consecration, love rested satiated - the sacrifice fully consummated. Now only the external ceremony of death will be carried out - external destruction; the essence [of it] is in the Cenacle. Never in my whole life had I understood this mystery so profoundly as during that hour of adoration. Oh, how ardently I desire that the whole world would come to know this unfathomable mystery!" (684).

The Eucharistic Apostles of the Divine Mercy wishing to underscore the closeness that exists between the Divine Mercy message and the Eucharist have placed in their logo the rays of Blood and Water emanating from the Host. The inspiration for this logo came from St. Faustina's vision. She wrote: "That same day, when I was in church waiting for confession, I saw the same rays issuing from the monstrance and spreading throughout the church. This lasted all through the service. After the Benediction, [the rays shone out] to both sides and returned again to the monstrance. Their appearance was bright and transparent like crystal. I asked Jesus that He deign to light the fire of His love in all souls that were cold. Beneath these rays a heart will grow warm even if it were like a block of ice; even if it were hard as a rock, it will crumble into dust" (370)."

Office for the Protection of Children/Youth

Child Abuse Prevention Month - Throughout the Gospel, Christ calls upon His followers to care for the most vulnerable among us, especially children. Mandated Reporters in the Diocese of Erie are people who hold positions of trust in our schools, parishes, agencies, and institutions and are mandated by Pennsylvania law and the diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children to report suspected abuse of a minor. All employees and volunteers working/serving for the Diocese of Erie, in our parishes, schools or agencies are mandated reporters both legally and morally obligated to report any reasonable suspected or known child abuse to ChildLine, the local police, or other appropriate agency. Visit www.eriecd.org/childprotection/ to learn the specific reporting procedures required by the diocese.

CRS RICE BOWL

Our CRS Rice Bowl journey has ended but our prayers, fasting and almsgiving continue as we seek a closer relationship with God and our global family. Let us hold in our hearts our sisters and brothers in Honduras, the Philippines and Kenya and commit to share our Easter Joy with people in our local community and around the world.

Please turn in your Rice Bowl to the vestibule of the church in the large rice bowl set up on the table.

Special Collection: Good Shepherd:

The Good Shepherd Collection allows each of us to show our gratitude and support of those priests who have cared for us and our spiritual needs and faithfully served our parishes. The collection for Retired Religious in December does not benefit our Diocesan priests.

Prayerfully reflect this week on how you can best respond in support of the needs of our Diocesan Retired Priests. Use the special collection envelope for the Good Shepherd Collection. Please return next weekend or drop it off at the church office.

Thank you for your continued support!

April 10, 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

May the peace and joy of the risen Christ be with us during the Easter season.

I am writing to let you know I am preparing a pastoral letter to the clergy, women and men religious and lay faithful of the diocese. My hope is to give you a fuller understanding of our ongoing efforts in pastoral planning. I have a significant amount of information to share with you. While the entire letter will be published on our planning website at www.eriecd.org/planning.html, I am hopeful that by sharing portions of it as a series, people will be able to absorb the details more easily.

We are, always have been and always will be a missionary church. We are called not only to care for the souls of the church, but also to invite others into the community Christ established on earth. My goal in beginning another more formal round of pastoral planning for parishes, is to create communities that are vibrant and dynamic, and in a position to extend a sense of welcome and belonging to all. Our planning website includes a good explanation of what I mean when I talk about vibrancy in a parish.

As the data we commissioned in 2015 predicted, our realities have changed significantly in the past eight years. The number of practicing Catholics in our diocese has declined steeply, as has the number of active priests available to serve in parishes. In fact, while the population in the 13 counties of our diocese has dropped by about seven percent since 1990, the number of Catholics who attend Mass on Sunday has dropped by 78 percent. I understand the pandemic hastened some of this decline. But that does not change our situation.

I have begun making visits to each region of the diocese and will continue to do so in the coming months. The needs in each area are different, and I plan to tailor information in my letters. But one message for all is that we must think of ourselves as a diocese, mindful of the needs of all of our sisters and brothers, as we lay out a sustainable plan for the future.

Our geography includes everything from mid-sized and small urban cities connected by four-lane highways to very small hamlets accessible only by winding, two-lane roads. In some areas, it is possible to walk between churches. In others, there may be 30 miles between churches. Decisions about the future need to be made with the big picture in mind. What needs to happen in order to care for all of the people in our diocese?

I invite you to visit our planning website as one way to remain informed. A bulletin announcement with the link has been made available, but we've created a prominent banner on the diocesan homepage as well. Just search for Diocese of Erie online.

I look forward to sharing more with you in the coming weeks, but until that time, I ask you to please join me in keeping the needs of the Diocese of Erie, its people and its clergy, in your prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
