The OLP Prayer Ministry

This is a ministry for those who are unable to attend the usual parish functions; perhaps due to an impairment, lack of transportation or illness. This active ministry can be done from home, a nursing home, the hospital, etc. Those who participate are asked to pray for a specific group, ministry or function as the meeting, ministry or function is occurring. Prayer is vital to our lives and keeps us connected as members of the Body of Christ.

For more info, contact: Deacon John Mang at deacon.john@olp.org or Tammie Mang, Faith Formation Office, at 814-838-9983 or tammie.mang@olp.org.

Sunday's Readings:

Entrance Antiphon - As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; / I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

First Reading - The word of the LORD is very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm - Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69).

Second Reading - Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel - The Samaritan traveler was moved with compassion at the sight of the man stripped and beaten by robbers (Luke 10:25-37).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Family Discussion of the Week: Acting With Mercy

But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wound, having poured oil and wine on them. then he put him on his own animal,, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. (Lk 10:33-34)

Adults: When have you gone out of your way to help a stranger in need?

Kids: Would you help a new student who needed help? Why or why not?

GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

A Family Perspective

Children learn by watching us. Do they see you helping others like the Good Samaritan, or avoiding them like the Levite in today's gospel? Frequently, it's more important to be concerned about what your children observe in your actions than what they see on TV or tech. Reflect on that.

OLP 31 Club

Praying for vocations every day of the year!

Members agree to go to daily Mass on a particular day every month and offer that Mass for an increase of vocations to the Church. There is a great need for vocations. One of the best ways to increase vocations is through prayer, and the greatest prayer we have is the holy sacrifice of the Mass.

Upcoming Mass commitments:

July 13: Sylvia B., Phyllis D., Joanie M., Charlie R., Sarah F., Donna R.

July 14: Nancy A., Mary Fran P., Peggy R., Alice S.

July 15: Mary Alice W., Loretta B., Mandy K.

July 16: Dee Dee B., Kathi K., Laura D., Kevin D.

July 17: Len & Cathy K., Nancy D.

July 18: Rachel O.

July 19: Amber D., Chris L.

July 20: Debi C., Kim D., James T., Roseann G.

If you would like to join the OLP 31 Club, please call Dave or Kathy Wayman at 397-6443. There are no dues and no meetings, only opportunities for grace and the satisfaction that comes from helping to fulfill a great need in the Church.

When at Mass offer the Mass for Vocations by praying the prayer below:

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner * but rather that he be converted and live * grant we beseech you * through the intercession of the Blessed Mary, ever Virgin * Saint Joseph, her spouse * St. Junipero Serra * and all the saints * an increase of laborers for your Church * fellow laborers with Christ to spend and consume themselves for souls * through the same Jesus Christ * Your Son * Who lives and reigns with You * In the unity of the Holy Spirit * God forever * and ever. Amen.

Serra Prayer for Vocations

From the Pastor's Desk...

This week we celebrate the Marian Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel on Wednesday, July 16th. This will mark the transition into the 4th phase of our Parish Re-Creation Prayer Plan between May 15th (the Anniversary of the Dedication of our Church Building) and September 30th (the Anniversary of the founding of our parish). From July 16th until August 15th (the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary), we will pray the Angelus. Each day that you pray the Angelus you are encouraged to move a crucifix from the prayer fence to the prayer bowl. Again, we will continue to see the prayers for our parish's new birth build up as our prayer bowl continues to fill.

Part of the goal of our Marian Prayer Plan, in addition to the main purpose of seeking our Blessed Mother's intercession for the rebirth of Jesus at Our Lady of Peace Parish, is to get exposed to different devotions and prayers connected to Mary. The "Pray with Mary" summer formation series also provides opportunity to learn more about what we as Catholics believe about Mary. It is held monthly throughout our prayer plan; our next session is on Thursday, July 31st. So ultimately, we hope to grow in our understanding, devotion and love of Mary, our parish patron, as we turn to her in prayer for our parish.

With that in mind, let's learn a little more about Mary under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel through Franciscan Media. "Hermits lived on Mount Carmel near the Fountain of Elijah in northern Israel in the 12th century. They had a chapel dedicated to Our Lady. By the 13th century they became known as "Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel." They soon celebrated a special Mass and Office in honor of Mary. In 1726, it became a celebration of the universal Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. For centuries the Carmelites have seen themselves as specially related to Mary. Their great saints and theologians have promoted devotion to her and often championed the mystery of her Immaculate Conception.

There is a tradition that Mary appeared to Saint Simon Stock, a leader of the Carmelites in England, in the 13th Century and gave him a scapular, telling him to promote devotion to it. The scapular is a modified version of Mary's own garment. It symbolizes her special protection and calls the wearers to consecrate themselves to her in a special way. The scapular reminds us of the gospel call to prayer and penance—a call that Mary models in a splendid way."

May God bless our parish through Mary's Intercession... and our week ahead!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Rich

June 20, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

By virtue of our baptism, we are all called to be missionaries. Like the Apostles, we are encouraged to reach out to our brothers and sisters in faith, love, and sacrifice, both around the world and here at home.

The Collection for National Needs, to be taken this year the weekend of July 19 and 20, affords the opportunity for Catholic communities, who have the means, to stand in solidarity with poorer ones in our own country. This collection is a combination of two other collections:

- The Catholic Home Mission Appeal impacts the lives of nearly 9 million Catholics. Through annual grants, the Catholic Home Missions funds catechesis for children and adults, seminarian education, lay ministry training, Hispanic ministry, and other pastoral programs in needy dioceses.
- The Black and Indian Mission Collection helps to evangelize and support our African American, Native American and Alaska Native communities with mission schools, religious education programs, the purchase of catechetical materials, and ministry training.

The struggle to receive basic pastoral care and catechesis is faced by thousands of faithful living in home mission dioceses. I ask your generous response to the Collection for National Needs on July 19 and 20. Your support will truly make a difference in strengthening the Church at home and be greatly appreciated. Be assured that you and your family remain in my prayers.

7 Big Myths About The Catholic Church

The Roman Catholic Church has long been the target of suspicion and hostility. But how much of this is based on ignorance and prejudice and how much is the fruit of thoughtful consideration of the facts?

This book separates fact from fiction. Without excusing or justifying wrongdoing, author Christopher Kaczor clarifies official Catholic teaching and demonstrates that much popular opinion about Catholicism is based on misunderstanding and misinformation. He also provides robust and lucid arguments for Catholic belief and practice.

No one book can answer everyone's questions or objections about Catholicism, but this work examines seven of the most controversial and common myths about the Catholic Church.

Topics include:

- The Church Opposes Science
- The Church Hates Gays
- The Church Hates Women
- The Church Opposes Same-Sex Marriage Because of Bigotry
