Code of Conduct-Steubenville Youth Conference 2025

Parents please read through the following statements with your child. Once read, have the youth and parent sign that they agree to follow the code of conduct. A result in not following the code of conduct is the parent having to come pick them up from the event.

Adult Leaders are acting in the best interest of all participants, and will be enforcing this code of conduct. Understand that you are asked to respect & listen to adult leaders/chaperones when asked/instructed to act.

- For your safety, you are not allowed to leave the event site for ANY reason without a chaperone.
- Participants are expected to attend all scheduled activities (there will be down time).
- Males and females are to remain in separate sleeping spaces at all times. No visiting is allowed in rooms by members of the opposite gender.
- All participants must be in their respective rooms by curfew on each night. Do not leave your rooms after curfew.
- NO illegal drugs, alcohol, smoking, vaping, firearms, explosives, or other illegal substances. The purchase, possession or consumption of beer, wine, other alcoholic beverages, or tobacco products by minors and the possession or use of illegal drugs by any individual will not be tolerated. Infraction of these rules will mean immediate dismissal from the event.
- Christ-like behavior is expected at all times. Inappropriate contact-as deemed by the chaperone, touch, gesture, language or activity of an offensive nature is NOT ACCEPTABLE. Respect for all adult leaders, peers, and all property is expected.
- No damaging property.
- All must be wearing modest clothing. No midriffs showing, no plunging necklines, shorts need to be no higher than mid thigh. Men must wear a shirt at all times, no cut offs. No offensive or crude messages on clothing. Sleep wear needs to be appropriate.
- All must follow direction of the leader Sarah Beaver and other chaperones. The group leader has the final say in any circumstance.
